YOUR STUDENT in APRIL

We have an amazing opportunity to help our young people live life with honor, inspiration, and integrity! One of the tools we have is “Relationships With Integrity” by The Legacy Institute.

The Legacy Institute has developed a comprehensive plan to put parents back in the driver’s seat regarding relationship and sexuality education for their family. Relationships With Integrity is a unique, whole person, whole life approach to relationship education. The curriculum begins with a biblical foundation and is backed up with research and data from a wide variety of scientific disciplines making the curriculum comprehensive in its approach.

Relationships With Integrity speaks to the whole person, physically, intellectually, emotionally, socially and spiritually. Many sexuality education programs focus on messages primarily aimed at keeping people from physical sexual expression. While Relationships With Integrity addresses this issue clearly in the upper grades, sexuality is much more than just a physical “act”. Relationships With Integrity goes beyond the physical and teaches what it means to “be” male and female appropriately in all areas of a person’s life. The emphasis throughout the curriculum is living with sexual integrity or wholeness.

THE PARENT PLAN starting in March

We want to give you a head start. This relationship roadmap begins with The Biblical Blueprint for Sexual Integrity; a four-part DVD series specifically designed for adults/parents. The series provides a positive, inspiring, biblical framework for healthy relationships and an understanding of the male & female design. This series is guaranteed to enrich communication and understanding within the family.
