

CPCS Secondary Student
DRESS CODE

Appropriate

CPCS represents a multitude of Christian denominations and families that have a variety of perspectives regarding dress. It is the School's desire to reflect and present a neat and modest image for our families to the community. While some attire may be acceptable for Christians to wear in other environments, it may not be appropriate for CPCS.

Appropriate

Cedar Park's dress guidelines are not an attempt to judge one's spirituality or impose ultraconservative values on families. Each individual should be recognized for his/her effort, abilities and spirit. Acceptability of dress should not determine the acceptability of the student. The goal is to reflect what we feel are commonly accepted Christian values and to encourage Christian young people to be concerned with the Biblical principle of modesty. CPCS assumes parents will honor this intention and will assume the responsibility for guiding their children in this area.

Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies.
